

Glenda J. Duskin

January 13, 1951 – December 22, 2011

Glenda J. Duskin, 60, of Brule, Nebr., passed away Thursday, December 22, 2011 in the Ogallala Community Hospital.

Glenda was born January 13, 1951, in Denver, Colo., the daughter of Floyd and Mildred Brown Watsons. She graduated from Adams City High School in Commerce City, Colo. and later attended college.

In 1981 Glenda married James Duskin and the couple resided in Commerce City before relocating to Brule, Nebr. in 2003.

She was employed at PAKS as a caretaker for about four years. Glenda was a loving wife, mother, sister, grandmother and friend. Her hobbies included making crafts.

Preceding her in death were her parents.

Survivors include her husband James Duskin of Brule; her three daughters: Tammy Duskin of Commerce City, Colo.; Starsa (Russ) Hermanson of Glenwood Springs, Colo., and Donna (Larry) Magana of Parker, Colo.; sister Tammy Watson of Thornton, Colo; brother Rodney Watson and his wife Carolyn of Whitewater, Colo; four grandchildren: Makayla, Kaiden, Bridgette and Dominico; long-time friends Chuck and Cheryl McDowell of Ogallala; and other relatives including an aunt, a cousin, and many nieces and nephews.

The family chose cremation and a memorial service will be held in Commerce City, Colo. at a later date.

Online condolences may be sent to webmaster@drauckerfh.com.

Draucker Funeral Home of Ogallala is in charge of arrangements.