

Marilyn Lehn

December 14, 1932 – May 23, 2012

Marilyn Lehn, 79, of Ogallala, died Wednesday, May 23, 2012, in the Ogallala Community Hospital.

Marilyn Rae Johnson was born December 14, 1932 in Denver, Colo., the daughter of Ray R. and Marvel (Corpe) Johnson. She graduated from Julesburg High School in 1950, Colorado Women's College in 1952 and Colorado State in 1954.

On June 6, 1954, Marilyn was united in marriage to Robert Lehn. One of their most precious memories was when they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They had 57 wonderful years together.

Marilyn and Bob lived on their farm in Deuel County until 1999 when they moved to Ogallala to retire, volunteer and enjoy their grandchildren. They were honored with the Nebraska Pioneer Farm Award in 1994.

After raising their three children she resumed her teaching career. Marilyn taught many years in Julesburg, Colo. and Chappell. She was an active member of the United Methodist Church at Julesburg. She was a lifetime member of the National Education Association, American Association of University Women and Nebraska State Education Association.

Marilyn was a member of the New Hope Church and enjoyed the senior group, "The Wise Guys." Marilyn volunteered at the Senior Center.

Preceding her in death were her parents, her daughter Debbie Miller and son Stephen Lehn.

Survivors include her husband Bob Lehn; and her daughter Julie and her husband Lynn Bruckner, all of Ogallala. Ten grandchildren: Erin Todd, Erik Todd, Angela Andrews, Evin Hunton, Andrea Bruckner, Kacey Bruckner, Raine Miller, Rugby Miller, Skylee Miller, and Ram Miller; six great-grandchildren, and special niece Claudia Koberstein of Holyoke, Colo.

The family chose cremation. There will be no visitation. A memorial service will be Saturday, May 26, at 2 p.m. in the Ogallala New Hope Church with Rev. Eric Wait officiating.

A memorial has been established to New Hope Church.
